

Exhibition adds sparkle to elegance

SOUTH Australian-trained jewellers are staging an exhibition at Urban Cow Gallery from February 1.

Dark Elegant Pcp features a group of jewellers studying or recently graduated from the Adelaide Centre for the Arts.

Jeweller Georgia Gabrielle called together the jewellers, including Jess Dare, Andrew Ioannou, Meghan O'Rourke, Alice Potter, Sarah Rothe, Anna Taylor, Minnette Walker and Trent Woods, to create the group exhibition of adventurous jewellery which explores contemporary themes.

The jewellers work in materials and styles including ornate filigree, gemstones set into botanical forms, silver bullets, body piercing jewellery, anodised titanium and aluminium, jewellery made from found objects, and resin work.

Some are already specialised in a single medium while others continue to explore materials.

The exhibition is at Urban Cow until February 25.
